

Daily Homily
Fifth Week in Lent, Monday
22 March 2021
USCCB Daily Readings

Looking over the readings for this week, the thought that rises out of all of them, first reading and Gospel reading, that helps us to pass over into Holy Week next week is this thought – God saves.

In the most caught situation like Susanna or this adulterous woman – God saves.

Think about your life now. Have you ever been caught? Have you ever been between a rock and a hard place? Have you ever been in a situation where there seemed to be no way out?

The women we read about today, this was their situation. Jesus dying on a cross, this was His situation. And yet, God saved them.

How has God saved you?
