

Daily Homily
Fifth Week of Easter: Monday
8 May 2023
USCCB Daily Readings

Today we hear it... the Season of Easter is taking a turn from the effects of the Resurrection, to what we can anticipate for the future to come... the Advocate, the Holy Spirit is coming and will teach us everything.

Now is the time to pray for the awareness of the Holy Spirit even more so within our lives, within our parish community, and within our human community.

Let us pray that the Holy Spirit will teach us the gifts that the Spirit has to offer to those who are open to receive... knowledge, fortitude, understanding, piety, counsel, wisdom, and fear of the Lord.

And to pray that the Holy Spirit will teach us the fruits that come from that openness... love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.